What is the Women in Publishing Summit?

The Women in Publishing Summit is the first of its kind. A summit FOR women BY women in an industry that is still largely dominated by men. The month of March was chosen specifically because it is Women's History Month, and marketing will be focused around women's achievements as well as how we can work together to help women with the dream of publishing or growing their business with a book achieve that goal.

2020 is the 3rd annual Women in Publishing Event. Our first event resulted in over 8,000 registrants and over 20,000 unique views to the online conference over a one week time frame. In 2019 we tripled our registration rate and more than doubled the online views just shy of 54,000 views in the month of March, 42,000 of those the week of the actual event.

More importantly, our sponsors received great web traffic. All levels garnered at least 200 clicks, but our Platinum level sponsor received over 1100 clicks. Our goal is to double our stats once again in 2020.

Important Dates

- October 2019 - We're beginning to ramp up website and social media activities, highlighting the best of 2019, and announcing speakers and sponsors for 2020
- Mid February - heavy promotion & Early Bird cart for the All Access Pass opens
- March 2, 2020 - Event starts
- March 8, 2020 - Official Event ends with a big live event in celebration of International Women's Day. Sponsors will be invited to participate in this live event
- March 9 - 13 - replays and final promotion
- May 2020-October 2020 - monthly webinars with our Sponsors (Bronze level & up)

The WPS Summit is the online conference every female writer can't wait to attend. They want to learn about new strategies to grow their business, the tools that will take them there and build the confidence into a profitable full-time career, all via their business colleagues.

The WIP Summit is hosted by USA Today best selling author and entrepreneur Alexa Bigwarfe. In addition to her own projects (Write|Publish|Sell!, Kat Biggie Press, Purple Butterfly Press, Lose the Cape Podcast and No Holding Back), she has self-published over 40 books for herself and others. In addition, she enjoys freelance writing and her essays and articles have appeared in over 40 print & digital magazines and websites.

Who is attending?

Participants at the summit are primarily women who are thinking about writing, are in the process of writing, or have already written a book. *While we saw a heavy number of nonfiction writers in 2018, 2019 brought in an influx of fiction writers. These women are looking for support in editing, publication support, printing, selling, distribution, marketing, and so forth. They are looking to invest in the right products and support elements to have success with their book.

Get your product seen/service by over 10,000 registrants

If you have a product or service you'd like to introduce to any of the above industries, this is your golden opportunity. The Women in Publishing Summit features over 40 authors, publishers, entrepreneurs, experts on writing, editing, PR and marketing, book launch and other associated topics. This online event is going to leave a long-lasting impression!

Why Market to this Group?

Our summit participants are proven to actually buy services and tools to help them independently publish their books. Our sponsors in 2019 all saw great sales from new clients sent to them from the Women in Publishing Summit. In 2020, we have been asked to demonstrate how we use these tools in our day-to-day work with our authors, and this will further encourage sales.

How We Market This Event:

We focus on getting the word out to women who are interested in writing a book world by delivering Facebook ads, regular newsletter broadcasts, announcements in our large communities, paid banner advertising, social media marketing, podcast appearances and guest posting, and search engine marketing techniques. Then we explode all of that with a stellar affiliate marketing program offered to all of our participants and other supporters of the conference. The affiliates take our messages and images to blow up their own social media about growing, learning, and sharing the good vibes. Our sponsors benefit greatly.

Our marketing venues include but are not limited to:

- Social media communities of over 200,000+ plus those of our non-speaker affiliates
- Direct mailing to our speakers' databases
- Podcasts, webinars, and other guest appearances
- Facebook Ads and other social media ad campaigns

The WPS Summit will be marketed heavily from mid February through 15 March by all of our partners & affiliates, but the WIP team will begin running ads to the website as early as November.

Get your word out to the female writing/editing/marketing/publishing/distribution industry and become a sponsor today. The sooner you get on board, the higher exposure you'll receive even before the event starts!
